

Wine name:

- San Martino 2021

Appellation:

- Barbera d'Asti Superiore DOCG

Production area:

- Costigliole d'Asti.

Vineyard:

- Variety: Barbera.
- The vineyard producing this wine has a southern exposure and are planted on soil with high percentage of clay.
- Vines average around 25 year.

Yield per hectare:

- Around 5 tons, corresponding to about 35 hl.

Vinification:

- Harvested in small chests at the beginning of october.
- Soft crushing and destemming.
- more than 3 months of skin contact (fermentation + maceration).
- End of alcoholic fermentation and malolactic fermentation in concrete tanks.

Ageing:

- Two years in 850 liters oak barrels.

Bottle ageing:

- In bottle for about 15 months.

Analytical data:

- Alcohol: 15,47 % vol.
- Total acidity: 6.47 g/l
- Total SO2 : < 5 mg/l

Suggestion for consumption:

- With food: first or main courses. For instance "agnolotti al brasato" (typical Piedmontese first course), small bird game, grilled red meat, "stracotti di carne" with veggies, roasted rabbit or hard cheeses.
- Serving temperature: around 15/18°C.
- If possible open the bottle a few hours before and pour it into a carafe.